Charleston, South Carolina on October 7th.<sup>1</sup> Their first Mary, was born three weeks later.

Rev. White preached his first sermon in America at Lumb North Carolina on the first Sunday in November 1807. It 1824 on a mission trip to Pender County and was buried 100 years. His remains were moved to Spring Hill Wagram, North Carolina by his great-grandson L Johnson.<sup>2</sup>

Catharine Campbell, or Grandma White, was born on Day 1786. She lived on for many years after Daniel's dematriarch of a growing family; she saw General W. T. army march through Scotland County on its way back no Charleston (following the capture and burning of Atlanta) in 1867 and is buried at the Riverton family cemetery near

From a baptismal record found by a genealogist hired Madry Zimmerman: "Baptism: Whyte, Donal 16 May 1776 son of Donald Whyte and Janet McKillen, spouse [in Gorton. Born May 15, 1776." According to the genealoginow Rhu, and Donald is a synonym for Daniel. We certain this is our ancestor, however.
